DEAN REPLIES TO

Factional Political War Goes Merrily Forward.

Writer Complains of Editorials

Not One in Defense of Republicanism, He Says.

They Teem With the Advocacy of Pernicious Doctrines.

Conservative Republicans again showed their teeth today when J. S. Dean, president of the Republican League, exploded another bomb under Governor Capper and declared that the brand of party patriotism displayed by the state executive waranted the suspicion and distrust of the Republican voters. Dean's statement is in direct reply to Governor Capper's answer to the original Dean-Clark charges that the governor's Republicanism needed readjusting.

Answering the governor's state-

The author of this interview shows no disposition to offend the socialists, anarchists, and the unclassified enemies of good government, generally, by denying the charges contained in my interview to the effect that the Capper publications constantly teem with editorial advocacy of the pernicious doctrines of these malcontents. An adroit attempt is made, however, to evade the issue by assuming that I had taken offense at the exercise of the undoubted privilege, which belongs to every partisan newspaper, of discussing beforehand the merits of the proposed party candidates, and of registering such criticisms as seem reasontain the views is absolutely no dissent from the views is absolutely no dissent from the views I have expressed among the Republicans who voted the ticket in 1912. I regard it not only as the privilege but as the duty, of a high class news-paper to pursue such a policy. No London, Aug. 12.—Engla Republican would take offense at his are crying for war work. Republican would take offense at his party organ for any such reason. Our grievance is that Mr. Capper is not publishing a Republican newspaper, but on the contrary, is publishing a paper, scarcely a lap behind the Appeal to Reason, in the advocacy of socialism and the whole calamitous propaganda of unrest and revolution.

The preconvention "criticisms" to which Mr. Capper refers in his interview, are in reality thinly disguised attacks upon Republican principles and history. For instance, in one of allowed to do since the beginning of and history. For instance, in one of the nine vicious editorial assaults on Senator Root made within the last few months, reference is made to the time "when McKinley reigned and Hanna ruled." Senator Root is probable to the war, and the war, when we think of women's hands still idle while precious time is slipping by. Hanna ruled." Senator Root is probably the greatest living advocate of Republicanism. The great men of all parties cheerfully concede his intellectual superiority, the purity of his personal character, and his unimpeachable patriotism. As a cabinet the personal character, and his unimpeachable patriotism. As a cabinet the personal character, and his unimpeachable patriotism. As a cabinet the personal character, and his unimpeachable patriotism. As a cabinet the personal character, and his unimpeachable patriotism. As a cabinet the personal character, and his unimpeach and pray to be allowed to protect their husbands or sons at the front and to defend their homes, their honor, their homes, their homes, their honor, their homes, the homes had homes and homes had member and United States senator, he has been a commanding figure in the last three Republican administrations.

In another editorial, the Capital quotes approvingly, the following: "He (Root) is the guide and philosopher of the resurrected but not regenerated Republican party."

In the columns of the Capital during the last few weeks, Senator Root, Senator Weeks, ex-Vice President Fairbanks, and many other great Republican leaders, have been denounced as "the tools of Wall street interests." men who are "owned by the interests." and who will, if chosen, "do their master's bidding." Mythical meetings of leading Republicans have been announced and described as "conferences of reactionary Republican leaders." All thorough going Republicans have been denounced over and over again as "reactionary," a word coined by the enemies of the Republican party and used only by those who consider the worn out political theories of the middle ages as preferable to the inviolable principles of self apparament expressed in our national able to the inviolable principles of self government expressed in our national constitution. In fact, all the old populistic and socialistic vocabulary of vituperation and abuse is brought into action with the deliberate design of destroying the confidence of the people in the integrity and patriotism of the Republican party and its leaders. It is the same line of villainous slander employed by Stubbs and others of his kind in their efforts to do the party as much injury as possible before they deserted it. they deserted it.

Does Mr. Capper no good to assert that he is a Republican and infends to remain a Republican so long as he runs this vile stream in Secolar to lead revolutionary poison through the columns of his newspapers and continues to scoff at the history, achievements and leadership of the party. No Republican would refer to the splendid administration of President McKinley as "the time when McKinley as the time whe

TODAY'S BEAUTY HELPS

Nothing excites more criticism than a woman with her face all daubed with face powder in her desire to hide a faulty or an aging skin. Instead of using powder, which clogs and enlarges the pores, it is far better to use a good face lotion that will improve and permanently benefit the skin. By dissolving four ounces of spurmax in a half pint of hot water you can make an inexpensive lotion that will do wonders as a skin whitener and complexion beautifier. It removes all shininess, sallowness and roughness, and gives the skin a smooth, velvety tone, while it does not rub off easily like powder, nor does it show on the skin.

arranging it becomes a pleasure. This simple, inexpensive shampoo cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly of all dandruff and dirt, and leaves a clean, wholesome feeling. All scalp irritation will disappear, and the hair will be brighter and glossier than ever before. - Adv.
